The image features a close-up of a wood grain pattern, likely walnut, characterized by its dark, wavy lines. Overlaid on this pattern are several large, overlapping circles. A circular inset in the upper right corner provides a magnified view of the wood grain texture.

The image features a dark brown wood grain pattern. Overlaid on this pattern are several large, overlapping semi-circular shapes. Each semi-circle contains a different wood grain texture, creating a complex, layered visual effect. A circular inset in the upper right corner provides a magnified view of one of these semi-circular sections, highlighting the intricate details of the wood grain and the way the different patterns intersect.
